Looking back 125 years!

In July of 1947 Burlington Lodge officially dedicated 85 acres of land to the local Girl Scouts for the purpose of building a camp. The dedication ceremony was attended by ER Paul Fulton, Sr. Mayor Verle McBride, Rev. Glenn Sawdon of Christ Episcopal Church, Mrs. Howard Wilson, Girl Scout director, and Miss Eileen McEown, scout director. ER Fulton stated "This is an investment in Americanism, an investment in the future of our country and our young people." The name selected by the scouts was "L-Kee-Ta." The camp is still being used by the Girl Scouts today.
